PARENT NOTIFICATION:
The district recognizes the importance of involving parents in the education of their children. Parents may request an alternate assignment. When requested, the teacher must provide an alternative, with a similar learning experience. Parents will make this request in writing, signing and returning the request to the student's teacher in lieu of the permission form.

Any movie with a rating of PG or PG-13 must have a signed parent permission form on file prior to allowing a student to view the movie. A separate form must be used for each movie shown. No "R" rated movies should be shown, in whole or in part.
